Dear Principals and History Teachers

June 17, 2009

Are you and your teachers looking for a field trip for the school year 2009/2010 that will enhance your students' knowledge and promote an appreciation for historic contributions by Black Americans from Thomasville, surrounding areas and throughout the country? The wait is over. The Jack Hadley Black History Museum is the first Black History museum in this area. The Museum is a collection of historical and cultural artifacts from Thomasville, surrounding communities, and expands to cover contribution of Blacks from across this country.

Part of the mission of the museum is to educate, promote, and engage the public about Black History. This is done by inviting various community groups to the museum for tours and programs. One of our main groups of focus is area students. Students can tour the different gallery areas and learn about famous Black politicians, scientists, educators, sport figures, military personnel, etc. There are also artifacts that date back to slavery and before the days of modern technology.

To arrange a trip to the museum for your students, please do the following:

- Call the museum at 229-226-5029 or
- Email us at jackhadleyblackhistorymuseum@rose.net
- Complete the attached field trip form and mail or fax it to the museum

With February being Black History Month, the schedule gets filled early for that time so plan in advance. Please understand the museum is open for field trips and tours year round and will work with educators to facilitate and experience to match many activities during and month. The days the museum is closed are: Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Eve, Christmas Dan and New Year's Day. Remembers, the main goal of the Jack Black History Museum is to serve as a resource to enhance knowledge and to promote an appreciation for historical contribution made by Black Americans.

We look forward to working with you, your teacher and students.
